Seniors

In October, 1953, our president, Dr. Margaret C. Brown was chosen woman of the year of Essex County by the executive council of the Women's Service Clubs of Essex County. This award was presented in recognition of Dr. Brown's contributions to teacher education in health and physical education and for services to the community and to youth.

In the spring of 1953, Dr. Brown was awarded the Anderson Award for outstanding contributions to the teaching profession by the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Activities

Student Council

The voice of the student body in policy-making and improvements, the officers of the Student Council are Robert Greenwald, President; Evelyn Maloney, Vice-President; Mary Sharkey, Secretary; Marilyn Maxcey, Treasurer; and Miss Wacker and Dean Stapay, Advisers.

Athletic Association

Our athletic program is ably directed by this group who also run the Varsity Dance and the Athletic Association Banquet. Officers this year include: President Evelyn Mangels; Vice-President Mario Alia; Secretary Joan Moran; Treasurer Robert Letson; and Advisers Mr. Goodwin, Mr. Peragallo and Miss Mellen.

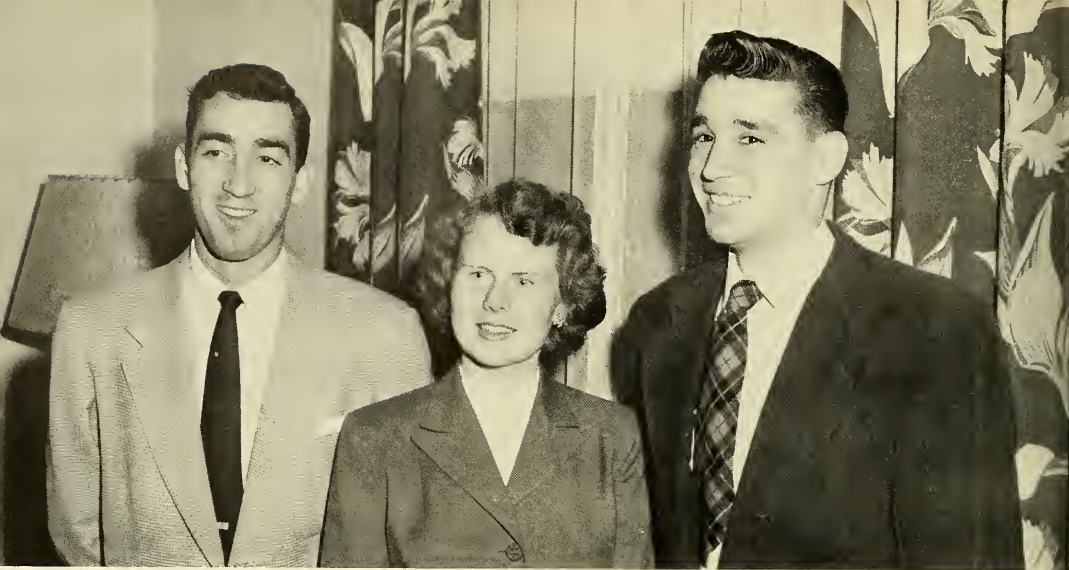

Springboard

The reporters of the college news and happenings, Editor Dorothea Tomason and Adviser Mr. Dunlap.

Olympia

The loyal workers who bring this book to you —Phyllis Cardone is the Editor-in-chief and Dean Stapay is the Adviser.

Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities

The selected few who are superlative in academic, extracurricular, professional, social and service achievements to the college. This year's members are Paul Silirie, Evelyn Maloney and Edward Haberman.

Future Teachers of America

Our teachers of tomorrow who foster civic and professional endeavors. Edward Valente, Carol Maurer and Ruth McCartney are the officers of the club and Miss Mellen and Miss Brand are the Advisers.

Big Sister Club

The junior women who lead the new freshmen in the right direction at college. Mary Sharkey presided with Phyllis Cardone, Louise Hollingshead, and Elizabeth Krako as the other officers. Miss Wacker is the club's adviser.

Audio-Visual Aids

Our projectionists who assist in classes, assemblies and demonstrations; presided over by Rudolph Parrella; Paul Silirie, Vice-President; and Anthony Perez, Secretary-Treasurer. Dean Stapay is the Adviser.

Folk Dance Club

Our loyal demonstrators of Folk and Hawaiian dancing who represent the college at many civic and professional organizations. The club is presided over by Edward Haberman and Evelyn Maloney with Dr. Brown as the club's adviser.

Glee Club

Heard at all college functions, the Glee Club is the core of our musical endeavors. Claridel Kinney is the club's secretary and Mr. Dugdale is the director.

Modern Dance

The students of the dance who are directed by Mrs. Canino and perform at the college demonstrations.

Men's Officials Club

This very popular club keeps its members well informed in the techniques of officiating, and provides its members with many opportunities to 'blow that whistle'.

Women's Officials Club

The 'whistle-tooters' who officiate for all intra-club and intra-mural games. The officers are Jane Stanicki, President; Evelyn Maloney, Vice-President; Claridel Kinney, Secretary; and Miss Mellen, Adviser.

Tennis Club

On the cool autumn and spring afternoons the members of the tennis club were swinging their racquets vigorously as they combined fun with the development of skill. This club is under the leadership of Mr. Washnik.

Field Hockey Club

The stick enthusiasts who played all fall under the tutorage of Miss Mellen.

Girls' Basketball Club

An opportunity for all to play and participate
—Ruth Schoenborn, President; Margar Zantow, Secretary; and Miss Mellen, Adviser are the club's officers.

Gymnastic Club

The effort and hard work of the many students in the college is often displayed at the various demonstrations and gymnastic meets. This group was captained by Edward Haberman.

Soccer Team

This team, captained by Tony Perez, had a tremendous amount of fighting spirit. Their 'die hard' playing carried right along through the season.

Tennis Team

The tennis team had many new members this year. It was led to another good season by such stalwarts as Mal Simon and Ed Haberman.

Men's Varsity Basketball

Women's Varsity Basketball

J. H. Basketball Team

The freshman team this year was a hustling and scrapping club. Their sportsmanship and playing ability were shown in every contest.

Baseball Team

Our baseball team this past year showed a preponderance of newcomers, but their ability was shown as they skillfully functioned as a unit to have a successful season.

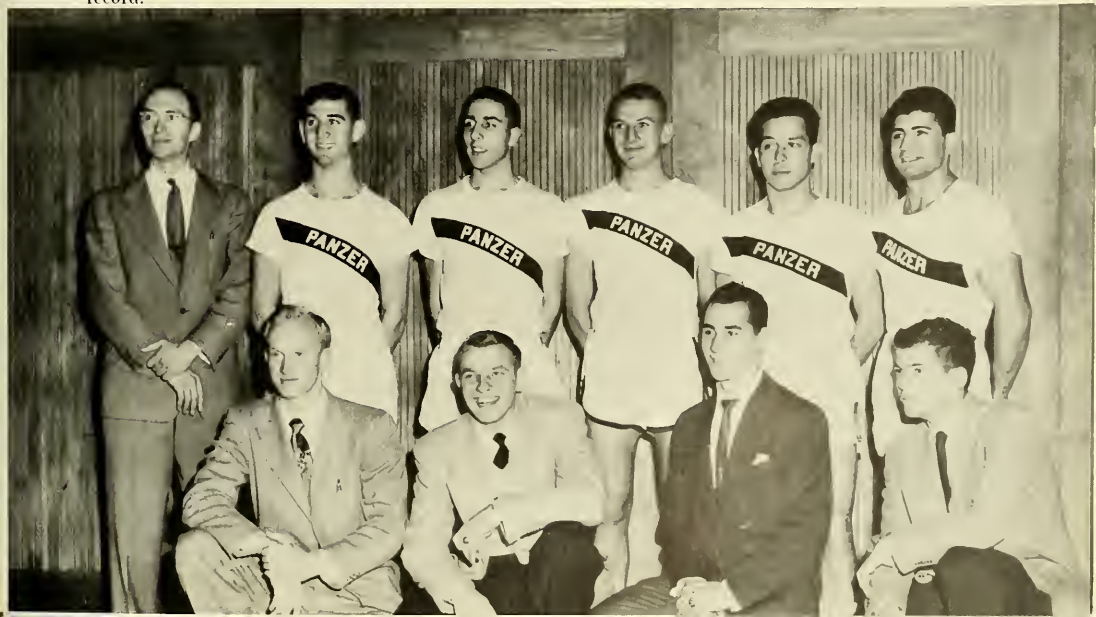

Bowling Team

Every week this skilled group of bowlers were seen practicing their strikes at the Palladium Alleys in Orange. Under the direction of Mr. Washnik, and possessing such players as Tom Patierno, Rudy Parella, Ernie Horvath and Don Furdock. This is a team to be proud of.

Cross Country Team

Although only in Panzer College for two years, this sport has caught fire. The team has been quite successful and is proud to boast a fine record.

Field Hockey Team

An undefeated season. Claridel Kinney made the All-State Honorary Team and Joan Moran and Jane Stanicki made the Reserve Team. The team was coached by Miss Mellen; Louise Hollingshead and Carol Maurer were the managers; and, Evelyn Mangels and Jane Stanicki were our co-captains.

Cheerleaders

Without the good work of the cheering section, our teams would never have been as successful as they were. This wonderful group is captained by Angela Di Costanzo.
